We have issued you with an NDIS Worker Check clearance.

About the NDIS Worker Check

Your clearance is valid for 5 years. We will send you a reminder by email 3 months before it expires.

You can check your status and expiry date and keep your details up to date via your MyServiceNSW account. It is an offence if you do not update your details within 3 months of any changes (change of name, address, contact details, or employer).

You will be subject to ongoing monitoring across Australia for any new criminal, workplace or other relevant records during this time. This may result in a reassessment of your clearance.

Your NDIS Worker Check status is registered on a national database. It is valid in all States and Territories, with all NDIS employers, and for any NDIS roles.

Your employer/s are notified of your status and any changes to it.
